Add a Conjunction Clause Poster

Photocopy each of these sheets onto A3.

Give out coloured post-it notes and tell your group/class to add as many conjunction subordinate clauses as they can, one on each post-it. For higher ability writers, either give a particular conjunction as a challenge, or say they must use a certain range from your conjunctions display.

For lower ability writers, add a comma plus the target conjunction, so the range of possible subordinate clauses isn't so daunting. This will help them to focus on the use of a conjunction they might otherwise avoid during independent writing.
